All the public schools were dismissed at noon on account of the intense heat, and the streets in the business portion were almost and the streets in the business portion were almost deserted. Over a dozen cases of heat prostration were treated at the City Dispensary. Thermometers at midnight marked 87 degrees and sleep was out of the question till early this morning, when a light breeze cooled the atmosphere several degrees. Today, however, the sun's rays are as flerce as ever. Orders were issued to dismiss all the public schools at noon again to-day.
